

COED POLICIES

Winter/Spring 2025

In addition to its rules, COED will have the following set of policies, which may be revised at the beginning of each new season.

I. League Fees and Deadlines

- A. League fees will consist of the following;
 - a. Player fees of $10 per player on each team's roster.
 - b. Bar fees of $40 per team.
- B. Additional late fees will apply if fees are not paid or postmarked by the deadline. The total fees with late charges will be -- $55 for the bar fee, $20 for the per player fee.
- C. Player and bar fees must be submitted by the Thursday of the fifth matchweek of the season, which for Winter/Spring 2025 will be March 13th..
- D. Fees may be submitted to the COED coordinator or mailed with a postmark by the due date to the address on the bar invoice.
- E. If bar fees are not submitted by the deadline, each team from that bar must forfeit their match(es) until fees are submitted.
- F. Captains are responsible for making sure their bars have paid the bar fee (and player fees if applicable).

II. Bars, Teams and Divisions

- A. The bars and teams approved for participation in the current season may participate in subsequent seasons without an approval vote unless a team or bar is voted out of the league.
- B. Bars that are approved for ADDA Monday league play will be automatically approved for COED.
- C. The current list of approved bars is at <https://addadarts.com/bars/>.

III. Dart Boards and Throwing Lines

- A. All Dart Board and Throwing Line policies from the ADDA policies document apply to COED, unless specifically described here.

IV. Regular Season

- A. Winter/Spring 2025 will begin February 13th and will consist of 11 weeks of competition along with two make-up weeks, with the regular season conclusion on May 8th..

V. Final Division Standings Tie-Breakers

- A. In the event of a tie within a division, the team that has the better head-to-head match points record will be determined to be the winner/higher-placed team. In the event the two teams are still tied, a coin will be flipped to determine the winner/higher-placed team.

VI. Post-Season Tournaments and Super Saturday

- A. There will be one post-season tournament.

- B. Eight teams will compete in a single elimination bracket seeded by regular season final standings.
- C. Round one of the tournaments will take place on May 15th at the home bar of the teams with the higher regular season finish. If there are two matches in the same bar involving teams with equal averages in each tournament and the bar cannot accommodate both matches, then the COED coordinator will determine which team will play at their home bar. The other team will play at their opponent's bar or a neutral site with the choice made by the COED coordinator. For matches played on a neutral site, the "visiting" team will be the team with the highest points per week average.
- D. The final rounds will be played on Super Saturday on June 2nd.
 - a. The "visiting teams" on Super Saturday will be the teams with the higher points per week average, and will have the advantage of choice on the cork. The winner of the tournament will be crowned League Champions and have "possession" of the COED Trophy and will receive a cash prize.
